EAST CENTRAL IS GIVEN HIGH RANK WITH NEW HONOR

Local College Is Admitted Into Full Standing In North Central Body.

GRADS STAND HIGH

Degree Holders From Ada School To Be Accorded Full Credit Now.

President A. Linschold this morning received a telegram from Chicago informing him that East Central State Teachers College had been admitted to full standing in the North Central Association of Colleges and Universities.

The North Central Association of Colleges and Universities includes eighteen states of the Union. The group is bound by Ohio on the northeast, Montana on the northwest, and by New Mexico on the southwest. Oklahoma is the only southern state in the association. The North Central Association is the great standard affiliating association in the United States. It has in its membership 133 colleges and universities and teacher training institutions.

"The admission of East Central to the association is the most fortunate event in the history of the local Teachers College because it means that the one hundred thirty-three colleges and universities in the association accept the college work done in East Central as being of standard college rank, and on par with that done in the best institutions of higher learning in the country," Dr. Linschold said. "It will no longer be possible for anyone to claim with any show of reason that East Central is a college only in name; for the North Central Association puts its stamp of approval upon the collegiate work of East Central as well as upon the preparatory work done here. In other words on March 16, 1922, East Central was accepted officially into full standing upon terms of equality by the greatest colleges and universities in the United States, both public and endowed."

Fully Accredited.
This means that hereafter students will have no difficulty in transferring their credits to other institutions of higher learning, and it also means that students who get their bachelor's degree here will be admitted to full standing in graduate schools of all colleges in the North Central territory.

The faculty and the student body are elated because of this recognition which has come to East Central. It comes after an exhaustive inquiry was made by the association into the standards maintained and the character of instruction given by the local institution, and after a personal inspection was made for the association by Dr. Carothers, an official representative of the association.

East Central is already a member of the American Association of Teachers Colleges which embraces all the best Teachers Colleges from New York to California, and from Washington to Florida. The local Teachers College is now accepted as a standard college by teacher training institutions and institutions of higher learning throughout the country.

Seizure of Italian Ship By Greece Is Test of Relations

ROME, Mar. 17.—The situation created by the seizure of Italian ships by the Greek government is becoming more complicated. It was said today that the Greeks, besides seizing the steamship Africa, had not given a satisfactory explanation for the continued detention of the Abazia, which was seized a few days ago on grounds that she was carrying contrabands of war for the Turkish nation, with whom Greece is at war. The Italian minister at Athens has asked an explanation of the action.

CITY WELL FORTIFIED FINANCIAL REPORT SHOWS

A report showing Ada to be in good financial standing was submitted yesterday to Mayor Gary Kitchens by Mrs. Minnie G. Hope, commissioner of public accounting and finance. Her statement was for the month of February and showed $32,674.42 in receipts, $112,367.77 balance in local banks, and disbursements amounting to $18,149.66. Money accounted for on hand did not include $35,000 in bonds belonging to the city and now on deposit, Mayor Kitchens said.

LESS UNEMPLOYMENT AS SPRING COMES ON

WASHINGTON, March 17.—Reports from "widely separated states from Michigan to Texas and from New York to Kansas show an improvement in the unemployment situation, according to Col. Arthur Woods, chairman of the emergency committee of the president's conference on unemployment.

Referring to the "unprecedented amount of winter outdoor work and the added improvement to be expected with the approach of spring, Col. Woods said: "There seems to be a slight falling off in the number of applicants for work at the employment bureau, coupled with a corresponding increase in the number for whom work is found by the same bureau."

ST. PATRICK'S DAY, 1922, BRINGS NEW RESPONSIBILITIES TO THE MAID OF ERIN

ONE MATCH SAVES JAP CREW THROWN ON STORMY REEF

(By the Associated Press)
HONOLULU, T. H., March 15.—A lone match, saved carefully in a tin can to prevent it from becoming wet was the instrument that resulted in the rescue of four of the five members of the Japanese fishing vessel Ebisu Maru No. 1, after they had been marooned fifteen days on a wind and storm-swept coral reef in the South Seas, with no shelter, few clothes and little food or water, according to the story they told when they were brought back to Honolulu aboard the Ebisu Maru No. 2, which had been sent to rescue them. The fifth member of the crew, 11 Miyazaki, the engineer, was washed away and drowned. His body was not recovered.

The fishing craft left here last year for Necker island, considerably south of Honolulu, and after unsuccessful casts sailed farther south on January 18. Ten days later in a heavy storm, she struck a coral reef off Sand Island, near French Frigate shoals. Under the battering of the heavy seas, the sampan broke up almost immediately.

A rude raft was formed from the timbers and Capt. J. Yonemaku with a rope around his waist, swam for a bar some distance away. He made the small piece of land, succeeded in pulling the raft after him. Miyazaki was lost at this time. For the next fifteen days the four men subsisted on birds they killed and a little fresh water. With their lone match they kindled a fire from pieces of drift wood. This thin line of smoke was sighted by the Ebisu Maru No. 2, the rescuing vessel, which proceeded to the bar and took the four survivors aboard. A large part of the Japanese colony here was at the dock to greet the survivors when they landed from the Ebisu Maru No. 2.

SULTANA FATIMA IS OUT IN COLD

Once Rich Princess Now in New York, Abandoned and Without Meal Ticket.

(By the Associated Press)
NEW YORK, March 17.—The Princess Fatima, sultana of Kabul, Afghanistan, forsaken by her lawyer, bereft of her 44-carat diamond, and denied further shelter by her unpaid land lady, stepped into a taxi-cab yesterday to drive to the City of Labor and embark with her three young princelings for a voyage to Bombay in a suite furnished by the British government—but she never reached the pier.

Last night she was secluded somewhere and those who knew how her fortune of a few months ago had disappeared doubted if her purse held the cost of a bed and lunch. It was thought that she had decided to stay and try to regain her fortune.

The City of Lahore was out in the sea today. The British consul-general was assuring those who informed him that he and the empire he represented would make no further inquiry into the doing of the once wealthy lady, who dazzled Broadway last summer with her nose jewel, and later visited the White House to be ushered into the presence of the president of the United States with all the dignity due a royal guest.

Vets Must Return Service Blanks at Once Legion Warns

Veterans of the World War, regardless of whether they are members of the American Legion, must return their service census questionnaires at once if their voice is to be counted in the state appeal for a particular form of soldier bonus, Gilbert F. Polly, commander of Norman Howard post of the American Legion, warned in a statement issued today.

Ample opportunity has been given ex-soldiers to get these census blanks, Polly said, and if they have not taken advantage of the opportunity it will be their own loss. A few are still available here and these are expected to be used up in the last minute rush.

Blanks may be obtained at the Red Cross office, from any officer of the Ada legion post, or from the Ada News office.

It is urgent that Pontotoc county's answer to the service census campaign be submitted within a few days, Polly explained, because of the fact that March 20 has been set aside as veteran employment day in Oklahoma and the full status of unemployment in each county must be in state headquarters if the drive locally is to be a success. All information concerning unemployment among war veterans is included on the questionnaire and this is expected to be invaluable in providing jobs for the state's jobless.

EDWARDS TO INSPECT BOOKS IN SMALL CASE

WAUKEGAN, Ill., Mar. 17.—Claire C. Edwards today ordered the books of the Grant Park Trust and Savings bank and the Turkish Trust company, both of Grant Park, Ill., produced in court here next Tuesday for examination by accountants of the state in the trial of Governor Len Small.

IRISH SAY HANGING SPOILS ST. PAT'S DAY

WASHINGTON, March 17.—John McHenry, 24, former New London, Conn. youth, was hanged in the District of Columbia jail today for the murder of a Washington city detective and an automobile dealer.

Efforts to obtain a commutation to life imprisonment for the youth were continued up to the last minute, but they failed as President Harding had refused to intervene in the matter. A new attempt to prevent the hanging was made by the local organization of the Sons and Daughters of Irish Freedom, who told officials that the taking of McHenry's life today would amount to desecration of the peace day of the Irish Patron Saint.

PAMPERED DODGE BOY IN STRIPES

Millionaire Auto King's Son Lodged in Jail to Face Speeding Charges.

DETROIT, March 17.—A fight to obtain the release of John Duval Dodge, young millionaire, from the Detroit house of correction, where he was sent yesterday for a five day term by Judge Charles L. Bartlett on a speed charge, was begun by his counsel this morning. As young Dodge was being classed for his term in the work house, a writ of habeas corpus was served this morning upon the superintendent of the institution.

Dodge spent his first night on a cot in the jail corridor, having summoned a physician who declared he was suffering from a fever. He was declared to be sufficiently recovered this morning, however, to be assigned to a job among the other prisoners. Three "jobs" were held as possible, washing dishes, working on the coal pile, or taking care of the prison furnace.

DETROIT, March 17.—John Duval Dodge, millionaire son of the late John F. Dodge, automobile manufacturer, today was serving the fifth day of a sentence in the house of correction for violation of the traffic laws. Dodge pleaded guilty to exceeding the speed limit late yesterday and was ordered by Judge Charles Bartlett, along with 21 others convicted on the same charge, to spend five days in the reformatory. A fine of $100 also was imposed on Dodge and his driver's license was revoked.

When Dodge completes his sentence he is to face a charge in Kalamazoo of illegal transportation of liquor and a suit for $10,000 filed here on behalf of a newspaper alleged to have been injured by Dodge's automobile.

Wears Prison Shirt.
At the house of correction, where receipt of motorists of all standards has become a common occurrence since Judge Bartlett launched a campaign against reckless driving, the formality were not altered in any way last night to admit the young millionaire. He was registered and donned the prison garb consisting of a striped shirt, a pair of heavy shoes and was assigned to a cot in the cell block. When the lights out signal was given he was listening to the sympathetic conversation of a fellow prisoner.

"You'll have to wait until you earn your tobacco here," the registering official told him as he confiscated his supply of cigarettes. This morning after being vaccinated young Dodge set about earning his smokes.

COURT FIGHT OPENED

Merchant of Madill Files a Petition To Recover His Lost Heirs.

(By the Associated Press)
DENNISON, Tex., Mar. 17.—Mrs. C. A. Allen of Houston, Tex., who is alleged to have kidnapped her 13 year old daughter and 10 year old son from their father, C. A. Allen of Madill, Okla., yesterday, has left here with the children for Houston, police stated today.

No attempt was made to apprehend Mrs. Allen who was given complete custody of the children by a divorce decree handed down several months ago in Houston, officers said. According to Chief of Police Russell, Mrs. Allen told him that Allen had visited her in Houston several days ago and with her consent had "borrowed" the children for an hour.

When he failed to return, Mrs. Allen came to Dennison and took a service car for Madill. She found the children in school, their father having entered them in school on returning to Madill with them. As they returned home from school, Mrs. Allen bundled them into a Dennison service car and departed for home.

The divorce decree prevented officers from detaining her enroute to Houston, it was said.

Opens Habeas Corpus.
MADILL, Mar. 17.—Habeas corpus proceedings will be filed in district court by C. A. Allen, local merchant, to secure the custody of his young son and daughter who are supposed to be in the custody of their mother somewhere in Texas, after she had induced them into a service car here early yesterday and escaped to Texas with them. At the same time, Marshall county officers had sought to aid of Texas officials in locating the woman, two children and driver of their car.

EAST CENTRAL NINE IS OFF OR FIRST CONTEST

Last week-outs were held yesterday afternoon by Coach Thompson's teachers before going to Francis today for the opening contest of the baseball season. A strong Francis team is reported to be waiting for them.

The game was scheduled for Friday afternoon. The coach reports his men as being ready, although few of them have had enough working out to begin to shop up yet. Uniforms have been issued and two squads now are "hitting the dust" in East Central colors.

TWENTY NATIVES KILLED IN BRITISH EAST AFRICA

(By the Associated Press)
LONDON, March 17.—Twenty natives were killed and 30 wounded in Nariobi, British East Africa, yesterday in a fight which followed a demonstration over the arrest of the Indian agitator Thuku, says a central news dispatch.

Thuku was arrested Wednesday, and trouble followed. About 1,000 natives armed with sticks, assembled before the police station and demanded his release, but were dispersed by police forces, who used their bayonets.

NEW YORK PARADES IN HONOR OF ST. PATRICK

NEW YORK, March 17.—The biggest St. Patrick's Day celebration in the city's history was arranged for today. The feature of the program was a parade up Fifth avenue this afternoon with a review at the Metropolitan museum of arts by Archbishop Hayes, Mayor Hyland and other officials.

Thirty divisions were arranged.

MIAMI PARK IS UNDER WATER FOLLOWING FLOOD
(By the Associated Press)
MIAMI, Okla., March 17.—River-view Park, the city's largest playground, was under several feet of water this morning as a result of a continued rise in the Neosho river. Workmen were busy dislodging driftwood at the Miami bridge. The river was only two inches higher today than yesterday and observers were confident that the crest had been reached. Occasionally drowned cattle and other stock were seen floating down the swollen stream.

Girl Who Dresses on $87.55 Year Some Schemer!

Ada Dears Declare They Wouldn't Appear on Street if Limited to Measly Sum Provided in Budget of Topeka Reformer

What would the girls of Ada look like if they had to dress on $87.55 a year?

This question has taken to the girls themselves and their answers to the testimony given recently by a Topeka clothing expert at a minimum wage hearing that a girl can dress on this amount for a year, would not do for that man to use for references. This expert and all others who agree with him were condemned by shop girls, stenographers, and pretty misses of the city.

The Topeka man's schedule for clothing that should do a girl a year follows:

One cotton dress, $7; one worsted dress, $13.50; one $30 suit every three years, or $10 a year for this item; aprons, $2 a year; one coat costing $25 every three years, making $8.35 per year; two hats, total cost $8; neckwear, $1; two blouses a year, total cost $5.95; one kimono 95 cents; purse, $1; one umbrella every two years, $1, or 50 cents a year; two cotton and two sateen petticoats, total $4.50; four cotton suits underwear, $6.10; four nightgowns, $4.50; one corset, $1; two pairs shoes, total cost $8; six pairs hose, total cost $1.50; one dozen handkerchiefs, $1, and one pair of kid gloves, total $2.75. Grand total, $87.55.

Pooch, Pooch! They Say.
In looking over the schedule the local girls expressed their opinion of some of the items in no mild way, and ridiculed the whole outline as one of folly. And, after they had so condemned such a program for wear, they eagerly turned to the question of how much did they really use a year for clothing.

to dress on a dare. Others declared that only a girl who did not care about her appearances could think of trying to go a whole year on such a budget.

Local merchants state that girls, especially those who work, usually exercise care in choosing the articles they wear. Few spend their money foolishly, they said. It was admitted that some of the prettiest and most expensive articles sold were purchased by working girls.

All Like Pretty Clothes.
"They like to dress in pretty things as well as anybody else," it was explained. "Sometimes it takes a sacrifice to permit the purchase of such articles, but many of the girls are willing to make it."

Asked if she could go a year with only two hats, one girl became confidential and said that she could not. A hat for each season was her plan, and the price on any one of them would exceed the $8 allowed by the Topeka man for the two hats of his choice.

While the girls sneered at the idea of having only so much money to spend for clothes, local experts in ladies' wear are of the opinion that by exercising care and choosing properly, a girl need not spend so great an amount of money for clothes. It was pointed out that different articles could be purchased at a very reasonable price, which an enterprising girl could make go two ways.

How About This Plan?
The experts introduced the following budget, stating that with it any girl in the city could dress in a manner that could not only make her attractive and good to look upon, but would also assist her greatly in cutting living expenses.

Here is the new budget:
Four gingham dresses, total $20; two blouses, total $5; two hats, total $16; sweater $5; a winter coat to cost $50 and to last two years, $25 a year; underwear $3; nightgowns $6.50; girdle and brassiers, $5.50; a corduroy bath robe at $6 to last two years, $3 per year; a summer kimono, $2.50; slippers $1; hose, $15; shoes, five pairs, $40; petticoats and bloomers, $10; a dozen handkerchiefs, $3.50; miscellaneous articles, such as hair nets, fresh collars and cuffs, $25. Grand total $252.

BIBLE THOUGHT OF TODAY

FORSAKE EVIL:—Thus saith the Lord of hosts; Turn ye now from your evil ways, and from your evil doings.—Zechariah 1:4.

OUR LARGEST UNIVERSITY

The enrollment of students at Columbia University reached 32,420 the other day. This was proclaimed as the largest number enrolled in any university in the United States but when the University of California was heard from Columbia went to second place. The enrollment in the University of California was 43,266.

Everywhere the number of students in colleges and universities has increased. Hard times appear to have had the effect of driving young men and women into higher education. Prosperity, with the demands of commerce and industry, appears to have the tendency of taking young men and women away from higher education. The number enrolled in the universities and colleges is now much greater than ever before in the history of the country. The time was when the college graduate was a rarity. Now there are numbers of them in almost every community. There is not much distinction any more in having a college degree.

Not every one who is attending college or who has a college degree can be considered an educated man or woman. A good many young people go to college because they think it is the thing to do and because of social advantages.

Prof. E. G. Sihler, the oldest instructor at New York University and one of the foremost classical scholars in America, believes that the American college idea is wrong. He says that just because the college student becomes socially independent and autonomous, it doesn't follow that he is also educationally and intellectually self-determining.

Prof. Sihler doesn't believe that the students ought to be permitted to select their own courses for this puts a premium on indolence. The student, he says, is too apt to select, not the work that will do them the most good, but that which is easiest. Instead of coming out developed, he says, students are graduated with weaker characters. They have spent their four years beating their professors and their courses.

Doubtless there is a good deal of truth in what Professor Sihler says that this doesn't apply to the vast body of students in American institutions or higher learning. The majority of them are earnest seekers of knowledge and the training that will help them in the problems of life.

There are many thousands of students who do not come into touch with the social activities that are the attraction for some students, including those of the kind mentioned by Professor Sihler. There are students enrolled in the extension departments now maintained by practically all of the universities. The instruction given most students through the extension departments is by mail. There is no attraction in this method for the idlers. The University of California has 22,744 students in its extension departments. Columbia has 19,953.—Wichita Times.

Talk about paying the fiddlers after the dance, that is just what the citizens of the United States are doing now. During the war, and for a year or two afterwards, the national government was extremely free with loans to foreign countries. This money was spent for American goods and products and trade surpassed the wildest dreams. Everybody was rolling in prosperity created by the purchases of Europeans made with our loans and seemed to forget that a day of reckoning was ahead. All this money was raised through sale of American bonds. When credits to the foreigners were cut off trade fell to low levels. When times were flush no one worried about the huge debt being piled up by the Washington government but when dollars became scarce people awoke to the fact that the prosperity was not as real a thing as they had imagined and that the dance being over the fiddlers must be paid. When the foreign governments were sounded on the subject of meeting some of their obligation the United States was informed that it is impossible for the time being, anyway. Indeed, in several quarters it was broadly intimated that this country should cancel these debts and take a new start. Certainly the war could never have been won without the financial backing of the United States, but now somebody has to pay the bill.

These graveled streets in Ada look mighty good now that it has rained again and people can observe the difference between them and the streets not yet taken care of. Chances are that after a demonstration of this kind many more blocks will be graveled in the near future.

If one listened to croakers the world would never get anywhere. Every advance has been made in the face of the opposition of these pests and in spite of their gloomy forebodings. They say a thing can't be done but it is.

If every one had will power to employ his time to the best possible advantage the earth would soon be peopled by a race of super-men.

Some men's ideas of getting a line on public opinion is to listen at the key holes of their own doors.

Winning Your Battle.

A German general said that the chief reason American soldiers were good fighters was because they hadn't been trained to retreat.

Trench warfare was doomed as soon as Americans got into the World War. It is not American nature to sit in the mud patiently for two or three years.

Americans, most nervous race so far in history, want constant action. They either go forward or are carried off the battlefield feet-first.

The war department now wisely issues orders to corps area commanders, that our soldiers are to be trained primarily to attack the enemy instead of merely holding their ground.

There is a success tip that you may turn into money.

All business, all participation in the great industrial machine of civilization, is a form of warfare.

You see the law of "survival of the fittest" working in trade associations. Jobbers or manufacturers band together in good-natured fellowship to accomplish certain ends. Easy to keep them together when times are good.

Then depression arrives, members get restless, soon desert the association and begin cutting each other's throats.

Every man should consider himself a warrior, battling to attain the victory of a fair share of general prosperity, up to the point where his takings cut into what belongs to others.

To be successful—and this is especially true of salesmen—you must be constantly on your toes, fighting hard by putting the very best of yourself into what you are doing.

At the end of each day, ask yourself: "Am I making progress toward my goal, or am I just standing still?"

The man who is standing still is getting ready to go backward.

Letting well enough alone is like holding the trenches. It wards off defeat but doesn't bring quick victory. The man who mechanically handles the work that is shoved before him, and keeps yearning for quitting time, will never be a Napoleon.

Promotion, riches, success, the top rung of the ladder—these come to the man who puts more than average energy and brains and care into his immediate tasks.

Hard work is the eternal key to wealth. There are skeleton keys—windfalls—but they are freaks of chance.

A certain man was convinced he was a master actor. He couldn't get a try-out. So he played along in burlesque, doing the job better than he really had to. One day David Belasco dropped into the theater and saw this actor work. Belasco gave him a chance. He made good. The actor's name is David Warfield. (Tulsa World)

Radio telephones are here. What for years appeared to be nothing more than interesting possibility is now a fact. And the claims made for this newest invention pale into insignificance anything which has come before in the communicating line.

A few evenings ago a select gathering of Tulsa citizens listened to a concert in Detroit and occasionally heard, clear and distinct, the whistle of a passing boat out on the great lake. One cannot suppress speculation. What effect is this new invention to have on existing business of various kinds? Will it become so common and popular that the "householder" will simply "tune in" during the evening hour and listen to a "central" repeat the world's news, thus giving a deadly blow to afternoon newspapers? Again, will it snatch the dividends from existing long-distance telephone lines? It is here.

And it will develop logically and naturally despite efforts to prevent it. Whatever it is capable of doing in the way of making life easier, happier and more comfortable it surely will be permitted to do.

All concerned must adjust themselves to the new invention. In the meantime, and in accordance with its traditional policy, the World is making arrangements to add this wonderful new thing to its service for the benefit of the Tulsa public. We hope in a short time to be able to invite friends to hear some such event as the president of the United States addressing the congress. Wireless telephony is a proven thing.

(Oklahoma Gazette)

A bonding company whose business is nation wide, after much investigation and much experience, places the responsibility for the present crime wave on drugs, unemployment, the parole and pardon of criminals and the unwillingness of many people to give up the high life they tasted during the war. No doubt the company has analyzed the matter correctly. Its analysis coincides with analysis made by other companies and organizations and individuals during the past several months. We know our problem now and interest and energy should be transferred from analysis to action. No matter what the origin of the present crime wave, the cause of its persistence is failure on the part of the agencies of law and order to meet the situation, deplorable tolerance on the part of the public and outrageous and dangerous contempt for law. It is about time public sentiment was brought into play to put down the so-called crime wave. We have come to a fine state of affairs in America when we allow tail-wagging dogs to do themselves into criminal courage, commit hold-ups and robberies and then escape the hand of the law. Public sentiment properly aroused would create a power that would put an end to the crime wave.

A STATEMENT FROM JUDGE J. W. BOLEN

TO THE PUBLIC:

It has been insisted that I make an announcement as to whether or not I will make the race for district judge. It is almost five months until the primary and I have felt that the public peace and quietude should not go through that period of disturbance, and about June first is soon enough to enter into this conflict as I anticipate a battle royal; but in as much as the slanderous tongue is exceedingly busy and is so very unparalyzing, both to me and those who are close to me, I have accepted advice of my friends and made this statement.

The most important qualification of a public officer is honesty. The second is qualification.

If the loan companies and the selfish interests can show one dishonest official act I am ready to quit; or, if they can show inefficiency I am ready to quit.

I have sent over a hundred people to the pen, and one unfortunate man to the electric chair, and have never been reversed in a criminal case, but the jury one time, and I have never been reversed in any important civil cases during my term of office. I have the best record in the Supreme Court of any judge in the State, and if this is not so I am ready to quit.

The slanderer says I do not enforce the criminal law. When I went into office there were three big gambling houses, two of them on Main street, in Ada, and one of them in the same block as the Court House. Also a whiskey shop in that block. I closed these up the second month I was in office. It was plain to all of the officers what was going on up there, yet this condition had continued for months.

A gambling house had grown from a small residence in Francis to occupy a two story rock building on Main street; it ran eleven years since Statehood in open defiance of the law. They finally petitioned me, and in less than five days I was there and took evidence and closed this big institution.

The law element in Allen informed me that they had been refused protection on the whiskey situation, and not having jurisdiction of whiskey, we adopted the plan of procuring a deputy United States marshal to reside there; we failed in this, but the move resulted in the wholesale arrest of bootleggers in Allen.

Another question at Allen came up between law and lawlessness, and I took the side of law, and the good women and church people of Allen are my friends and will be my supporters.

The last term of criminal court convinced me that two-thirds of the cases were traceable directly to whiskey, and convinced me that the whiskey traffic was placing an awful tax burden upon the taxpayers, breaking up homes and old mothers hearts, and I started to call a grand jury but did not have the money. I then wrote fifteen letters to known prohibitionists, inviting them to attend a conference at my office to adopt some method to suppress the liquor traffic, one prohibitionist came, Mr. Little of the News.

I have never turned down a call to assist in enforcing criminal law of any town or community, but have responded at once and set results. Under the law I am not a prosecutor and never have meddled except where I was especially called on, but have refused no call, and if the W. C. T. U. can adopt any plan to suppress the liquor traffic that brings about, I think ninety percent of the crime, I am at their service, and if you doubt I will go after the bootlegger, give me a trial, and this is not for political purposes either, because I do not need it to be elected.

Further more, the County Commissioners will tell you that I have guarded the public treasury and fought every unlawful or reckless expenditure of public money. I have opposed every scheme of refunding bonds, and finally notified the County Commissioners that I would sign no more refunding bonds. If every County Commissioner will not tell you that I have fought the battles of the taxpayers on the question of economy, in season and out of season, I am out the race.

Not long ago I became convinced that many of the residents had been assessed too much for their sewer work, and that certain contractors had not been faithful to their trust of public works. I held a court of inquiry and as a result several hundred people got their sewer tax reduced from forty-six to thirty-two percent.

I try cases with more speed and with more accuracy than any judge in the state, and if this is not so I will quit the race. At Wewoka I tried seven murder cases in eight days.

It costs something like Three Hundred Dollars a day to run the criminal court. A judge in an adjoining district averaged five cases a week this winter. I averaged four cases a day. The record of that judge will show that half of the cases come back to be tried again; my record will show that hardly any of my cases come back for trial again. Just recently I tried two big railroad cases that carried a judgment of $25,000.00. These cases involved the most intricate law in the practice, but so accurately did I try the cases until they settled for $22,000.00 just a few days ago. Take a murder case that takes four days to try it, that means an expenditure of at least $1,200.00, if that case is tried correctly the expense is over, but if it is tried incorrectly it is reversed and comes back and $1,200 more is expended, with the changes of witnesses getting scattered and the ends of justice being defeated. Under the law convicted criminals have a right to make bonds except in capital cases, and I cannot avoid this. This is the law.

Do the people want efficiency and honesty, and a judge that does his own thinking, or do they want some hand picked judge that lets some sinister influence, or corporation lawyer do his thinking for him?

Present economic conditions demand serious consideration.

If the loan companies and avaricious creditors' calls were given full sway they would have bankrupted this county and rendered many families and many farmers homeless. I took the side of the producers of wealth, and told these loan companies and other avaricious creditors to stay their hands, that the farmers had the right to an opportunity to another crop and chance to save their home. One old farmer thought that his wife and little children would soon be outside, and I told him to rest easy, and it made him so happy he cried like a child.

I have scattered the Gospel of cheer, and of justice and of right among the poor and the lowly, and I have defied the rich and the powerful, and as a result they are making a most unholy—slanderous fight against me under the guise of morality.

The steel trusts and the big manufacturers sought to strike down organized labor, and appropriate unto themselves all of the Americanism of the world called the open shop the American plan. The loan companies' sinister influences are trying to appropriate to themselves all the moral worth and all of the beautiful traits of character, and are fighting the peoples friend under the guise of a moral move.

The fight that is generated and being conducted against me had its birth in the minds of men whose minds are blackened and almost destroyed by the awful influence of profound hatred, augmented by the money changer who has no regard for human flesh and human blood and for the homes and families of the poor people of this county.

My position is well defined. I stand for honesty in office, a perpetual war on all grafters and extravagance of the public money; that the producers of the wealth be given the first consideration like Abraham Lincoln gave them, and that the law be enforced with justice and not out of a spirit of hatred and revenge; and I defy the slanderers, the corporation lawyers, and the entire gang to meet me face to face before the people and repeat some of the malicious lies they are gum-shoeing against me.

I am really tired of the office, but I will not be lied out of it, or run out of it, and the battle is on, and I will hang up some scalps as well as they when the battle is over.

About June the first I will announce, and I will go before the people and show them what I have stood for, and what I have done, and I want them to trot out their bunch of corporation lawyers and slanderers who will not let the purest woman in the county escape to carry their oads, and I want them to meet me face to face and let the people say who is right and who is wrong.

I will be in the race, but I am not going to worry the people with my troubles and disturb the town and county for five long months. I am willing to let them rest until a sufficient time before the primary for them to understand all the issues involved in this fight.

I have been true to my government, my friends, by family, honest and efficient, and the devil is entitled to his dues.

Yours for honesty and efficiency, J. W. BOLEN.

LITTLE WOMAN GAINS 20 LBS. TAKING TANLAC

Mrs. B. F. Smith Was in Such Bad Condition She Had to Stay in Bed for Weeks at a Time and Had Given Up Hope of Getting Well.

"I was in such a bad condition I had to stay in bed for weeks at a time and I guess if it hadn't been for Tanlac I never would have seen another well day," said Mrs. B. F. Smith 3305 Ave. P, Galveston, Texas.

"I suffered so much during the past four years from nervousness and stomach trouble that I would almost become hysterical at times. No body will ever know just how much I suffered because I can't describe it. I fell off until I only weighed one hundred and ten pounds and had almost lost hope of ever getting well.

"Tanalac seemed to get right at the cause of my troubles, and now I am in better health than in ten years. I eat anything I want, my digestion is almost perfect and I have gained twenty pounds in weight. No medicine could do more for a person than Tanlac has for me."

Tanalac is sold by M. A. Waits and all leading druggists. (adv)

Shades are the features in blouses for Spring 1922. Bright shades as mohawk, jade, periwinkle, coral, citron, orchid, and the shades of yellow known as Dent de Lion. Some are made too in the darker shades, navy, brown. Many Georgettes and Crepe de Chines are splashingly designed in heavy folds, large collar, spots and stitches and loops. MAN SAVES WIFE IN NICK OF TIME

"My wife was unable to eat even the lightest food, and had fallen away to a living skeleton. She could not even keep doctor's medicine on her stomach and was tortured with pain. On the recommendation of a friend I bought a bottle of Mayr's Wonderful Remedy and she is all right now and has gained forty pounds. It is a simple, harmless preparation that removes the catarrhal mucus from the intestinal tract and allays the inflammation which causes practically all stomach, liver and intestinal ailments, including appendicitis. One dose will convince or money refunded."

A Word From Lee Daggs.

The impression seems to have gone out that I don't care whether I am elected or not; surely there is no one who would take such a statement seriously.

Several of my friends solicited me to run for the office for which I am asking, expressing their confidence in me and in my ability to handle the office of Accounting and Finance of the City of Ada.

I have said and still say that I shall not try to make an active canvass of the city. Why should I? Nearly everybody in Ada knows me and knows of my ability. My telling a voter that I am worthy and well qualified should not influence him to vote for me.

When any man or woman begins running for office, naturally, that person thinks he or she is able to handle the office and affairs pertaining to it. It is, therefore, your duty as a citizen to learn, as far as possible, who is the right man for the right place, and vote accordingly; if I am not that man, don't vote for me. If the four years experience that I have had as Treasurer of Pontotoc county, where I have handled several hundred thousand dollars each year, and where I have given entire satisfaction, does not make a real city home, Garage, Chicken House, etc., have plenty of soft water in connection with city water. Several different kinds of fruits and berries. All improvements are in a first class condition. Paved and gravel streets all the way to city from home. If you are interested in a home come and look this over. Terms if wanted. Phone 472.

DOINGS OF THE VAN LOONS—It doesn't look as if Father is going to save much.

By F. LEIPZIGER

"Gee, I bet we could eat another whole big box of Kellogg's Corn Flakes—they're so good and crispy. My mother says Kellogg's are never tough or leathery."

You know how delicious Corn Flakes can be when you eat Kellogg's

Altogether different in flavor! Altogether different in crispness—that's what makes Kellogg's Corn Flakes all-the-time delicious, appetizing, inviting! You never tasted such a really wonderful cereal! Kellogg's delight the little people—and the big ones, too! Kellogg's are just as fascinating for lunch or supper or between-time nibbles as they are for breakfast!

Just to see those sunny-brown Corn Flakes in a big bowl and some morning's milk close by is a sight to put a keen edge on hunger! But—when you eat a few spoonfuls—and you get that crispy deliciousness and that fascinating flavor! Kellogg's are never leathery, never tough!

Ask for KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes! If you just ask for "corn flakes" you're likely to get an imitation! Demand the original Corn Flakes. Kellogg's are sold only in the RED and GREEN package that bears the signature of W. K. Kellogg, originator of Corn Flakes. None are genuine without it!

KELLOGG'S CORN FLAKES are made by the folks who gave out the JUNGLELAND Moving Pictures. Common inside every package of KELLOGG'S Corn Flakes explains how you can obtain another copy of JUNGLELAND. Look for it!

was holding tight to the 44-carat diamond that the princess naively brought to America without paying duty and then tried to sell. Paul Potch, the lawyer who helped the princess and who fought her fights for her in the court rooms against people who held unpaid bills against her, announced recently that he was through. Mrs. Ida Wyllie, in whose lodging the princess has remained since last November, said Fatima could never again lay her head upon her bed or eat a meal at her table. For a while the princess paid her bill at the boarding house, and then she formed a habit of overlooking that practice, the landlady said. Three weeks ago the British consul-general took up the burden and continued it until after breakfast this morning.

A fat man recently became stuck in a narrow crevice in the Crystals! Caverns of the Sequoia National park and was held for three days.

ACID IN STOMACH SOURS THE FOOD

Says Excess of Hydrochloric Acid is Cause of Indigestion.

A well-known authority states that stomach trouble and indigestion are nearly always due to acidity—acid stomach—and not, as most folks believe, from a lack of digestive juices. He states that an excess of hydrochloric acid in the stomach retards digestion and starts food fermentation, then our meals sour like garbage in a can, forming acid fluids and gases which inflate the stomach like a toy balloon. We then get that heavy, lumpy feeling in the chest, we cruetate sour food, belch gas, or have heartburn, flatulence, waterbrash, or nausea.

He tells us to lay aside all digestive aids and instead, get from any pharmacy four ounces of Jad Salts and take a tablespoonful in a glass of water before breakfast while it is effervescent and furthermore, to continue this for one week. While relief follows the first dose, it is important to neutralize the acidity, remove the gas-making mass, start the liver, stimulate the kidneys and thus promote a free flow of pure digestive juices.

Jad Salts is inexpensive and is made from the acid of grapes and lemon juice, combined with lithia and sodium phosphate. This harmless salts is used by thousands of people for stomach trouble with excellent results. (adv)

Franklin Davis of Troop 8, Hays school, will be awarded his second class badge tonight at the stunt night program.

Raymond Duke of Troop 10 is the first scout of the Glenwood school troop to become a first class scout.

Leon Harris and Delbert Jeter of Troop 2 will receive their second class badges tonight at the Chamber of Commerce rooms.

The radio school Tuesday night was conducted by Powell West. He reports a good attendance.

At Stonewall Sunday Mr. and Mrs. Ballard of the Methodist church choir, Jack Moore of Troop 5, and Gene Ford, Wolf Cubs, and Miss Esther Sarkey, gave a delightful program to about 200 people. At the conclusion of the program Edgar and Elvin Crabtree were awarded second class badges, Earl Harrison, George Scarbrough and two other scouts were awarded tenderfoot badges and Herbert Beck, Brown McCoy and Ment Young were awarded merit badges.

Harry W. Miller, scout executive reports that it was a pleasing sight to see the Stonewall scouts assembled before the audience, with the Troop Committee, Court of Honor, and Scout Masters, with the president of Stonewall Court of Honor, Prof. Bernard Stubbs, awarding the badges. Stonewall scouts are working hard to have every scout in the first class by May 1.

The stunt night program tonight at the Chamber of Commerce rooms will be an extra fine one. Honors will be given to some interesting and amusing things about animals and his experience as a circus man. If you want to know how to get into a circus free without crawling under the tent or carrying water to the elephant, you will do well by attending this event, Mr. Miller said.

Troop No. 7, Willard school, hiked to the lodge Friday evening. Sydney Sachs, one of the members has confidentially told some of his fellow scouts that he intends to take more than one blanket next time he hikes on a cold day.

Troop 1 scouts are registering this week. They will go to the lodge tonight under the leadership of D. T. Bradshaw.

Willard School Notes

Work Makes Flay Fly MacNider Says Today In Hunting Vet Jobs

(By the Associated Press)
WASHINGTON, March 17.—"Fuller co-operation" with the American Legion in its "employment day" drive next Monday to find jobs for 700,000 unemployed veterans of the world war was urged in a statement issued today by Secretary of Labor Davis.

"During our emergency," he said, "they served us, offered their all, and placed the national interest above their own. It is now the duty of all good American citizens to see that they are properly cared for. They ask no charity but only a chance to render further service in honest employment."

"Work makes the flag fly. Help the American Legion to hang it as high in peace as in war."

Wilson Visits Duncan.

Mr. Wilson resides at Ada where he has personal charge of one of the largest stores of the Wilson-Johnson chain. He declares that Pontotoc county and the city of Ada are improving and he looks for a general improvement all along the lines.—Duncan Daily Eagle.
